The Character Actor's Do's, Don'ts and Anecdotes is the charming and fascinating autobiography of one of America's premier character actors, Phil Bruns. From Shakespeare at the Old Vic in England to commercials, major films, and television, Phil Bruns has done it all with great success. Now, in his retirement, he's written a wonderful book recounting his life as a young farm boy in Minnesota, as a Fulbright Scholar in England, then as a successful Broadway theater actor, star of many television commercials, with over forty film credits and hundreds of appearances on TV sit-coms. Sit down on a comfortable chair and be prepared to enjoy the life story of a man who's lived a most interesting life full of funny anecdotes and the sometimes bizarre and hilarious goings on in the world of theater, film, and television.

This energizing title introduces young readers to after-school drama and theater groups that build school spirit and social engagement. Fun theater activities from team building games to making a tote, show kids how to get involved, build strong teams, create identities, and raise money. School groups and activities help kids discover their passions and meet other kids. More importantly, they encourage kids to have the confidence and character to take pride in their schools.
