The internationally renowned team of Peter Brook, Marie-Helene Estienne and Jean-Claude Carriere together revisit the great Indian epic The Mahabharata 30 years after Brook's legendary production took world theatre by storm. Destruction never approaches weapon in hand. It comes slyly, on tiptoe, making you see bad in good and good in bad. The devastation of war is tearing the Bharata family apart. The new king must unravel a mystery: how can he live with himself in the face of the devastation and massacres that he has caused? An immense canvas in miniature, this central section of the ancient text is timeless and contemporary, asking how we can find inner peace in a world riven with conflict.

What happens when the legacy of a father collides with the dreams of his son? Widow Jeeto Gill has spent her life working hard and making sacrifices for her children. Now she looks forward to going back to her land in the Punjab, eating saag and roti on a verandah and letting her tired eyes rest on green fields. Her son Pal seems to have it all but he 's restless. He 's got big plans for his Daddy 's business and a taste for Johnny Walker Black Label. However his kind-hearted wife Liz has her own ideas about what 's best. Meanwhile Pal 's sharp-tongued sister Cookie runs the tackiest beauty salon in town and harbours a dark secret. When their cousin 's destitute wife, Reema, arrives from back home, the Gills propose to take care of her. Little do they know that her arrival will change the course of their family 's destiny forever.
