How To Do Everything: by Steve Smith

Of course, you can't find time to do everything you want in life if you're squandering the precious little time that you do have. Time is the most valuable commodity because we can't make more of it. In fact, time is far more valuable than money. You can make and lose money easily, but you can't make more time.

Among its many gems of advice, this book shows how to cook with acetylene, take revenge on a lawn mower, measure a hat size with a two-by-four, reduce carbon footprint (it involves moving into a fruit tree located next to a liquor store), and make alternative fuel (which involves an empty propane tank and a full septic one).
