Write it Down, Make it Happen (2001) offers useful and practical advice for your personal, professional or romantic life. The advice is centered around writing down your goals and visualizing both your fears and aspirations as a way to overcome your perceived limitations and make your dreams reality.

Too often, people drift through life with a feeling of frustration, longing to find some adventure or purpose in life, envious of those whose lives seem exciting. In WRITE IT DOWN, MAKE IT HAPPEN, Henriette Anne Klauser shows you how to write your own lifescipt. Simply writing down your goals in life is the first step towards achieving them. The 'writing it down' part is not about time management; it is not a 'to-do today' list that will make you feel guilty if you don't get everything done. Rather, writing it down is about clearing your head, identifying what you want and setting your intent. You can 'make it happen' purely by believing in the possibility. In WRITE IT DOWN, MAKE IT HAPPEN, there are stories from ordinary people who witnessed miracles large and small unfold in their lives after they performed the basic act of putting their goals on paper.

Twelve-year-old Autumn loves to write, and she can't wait to grow up and be a published author. She finds inspiration all around her, but especially in Cameron, the dreamy boy in her journalism class who she has a major crush on. When her older brother Hunter makes fun of one of her most personal poems about Cameron, Autumn decides to prove that she is talented enough to become a published author. But when her essay about Hunter wins a contest, and her dream of being published is finally within reach, Autumn has to decide whether being a real writer is worth the cost of sharing her family's secrets and hurting people she loves. This touching story is sure to resonate with readers, and prove that the heart is mightier than the pen. A Margaret Ferguson Book

A revolutionary approach to writing that will teach you how to express yourself fluently and with confidence for the rest of your life.

"I HAVE TO WRITE IT DOWN" is designed to inspire, support, and help bring clarity to those who know they have a specific God-given purpose for their life, but do not know where or how to start recognizing and clarifying those parts of his or her life that will get them to where God has ordained them to be. This 30-day devotional Journal is founded on Habakkuk 2:2 to emphasize the importance of writing your thoughts, ideas, dreams, and visions down on paper. "And the Lord answered me, and said, "Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it." "For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end shall speak and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; for it will surely come, it will not tarry." -Habakkuk 2:2-3 (KJV)

Words have consequences. For some, more than others. Bestselling novelist Emma Ross isn't satisfied being number two. She wants to be number one. She can't stand always looking up to Jessen Blake - an amazing writer - but also a dead one. She vows that her next book will top the charts no matter what it takes. But after repeated encounters in her dreams with Jessen Blake himself, warning her that she must never become number one, Emma drives herself harder than ever to top him. But as her grip on reality starts to unravel, she begins to suspect that her words may have more power than she could possibly imagine.
